Abstract:

This work introduces jFuzzyLogic, an open source library for fuzzy systems which allow us to design Fuzzy Logic Controllers supporting the standard for Fuzzy Control Programming published by the International Electrotechnical Commission. This library is written in Java and is available as open source from jfuzzylogic.sourceforge.net. The use of jFuzzyLogic is illustrated through the analysis of one case study.

Preferred form of presentation: Oral

Paper Topics:

Z. COIs: conflicts of interest in special sessions S01 to S55
S26. Software for Soft Computing

Student Paper: No

ADDITIONAL REMINDERS:

1. Register for the conference at <http://www.ieee-wcci2012.org> by clicking on the conference registration link on the home page.

IMPORTANT: Each paper published in the proceedings must have at least one author who has registered for the conference. The deadline for author registration is April 2, 2012. If you register late your paper may not appear in the proceedings.

2. Initiate your hotel reservation for the FUZZ-IEEE 2012 during the registration process.

3. In order for your paper to be published in the conference proceedings, a *signed IEEE Copyright Form* must be submitted for each paper. FUZZ-IEEE 2012 has registered to use the IEEE Electronic Copyright (eCF) service. The confirmation page shown after submitting your final paper contains a button linking directly to a secure IEEE eCF site which allows electronic completion of the copyright assignment process. In case it fails, please have the completed IEEE Copyright Form, found at <http://www.ieee.org/web/publications/rights/copyrightmain.html>, emailed it to either of the Publication Chairs, Daryl Essam (d.essam@adfa.edu.au) or Ruhul Sarker (r.sarker@adfa.edu.au).

IMPORTANT: No paper can be published in the proceedings without being accompanied by a Completed IEEE Copyright Transfer Form. You must complete and submit this form to have your paper included in the conference proceedings.

4. If you need an invitation letter from the IEEE WCCI 2012 General Chair to get a visa to Australia, you should email your request directly to the Registration Chair (Dr Kathryn Merrick, k.merrick@adfa.edu.au).

We are looking forward to seeing you at FUZZ-IEEE 2012 (Brisbane, Australia).

Sincerely, Hussein Abbass <hussain.abbass@gmail.com>
